

There is an automobile there. I had the value here on this page. I didn't put down the model.

Q 1941?

A 1941 Chrysler, $100. The furniture in the property at 336 North Market is hotel property, which is used in the rooms. Apparently what is left there - I mean some of the better pieces she probably disposed of in recent years - glass and china and maybe some of the furniture. This is just commonly used furniture. The total value I place on that furniture is $500. The total value I placed on the furniture in the annex, 335, was $200. I think that covers all that we had in the appraisal.

NED S. ZEILER, a witness for the Petitioners, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Bennett:

Q Your full name? A. Ned S. Zeiler.

Q You are a realtor in Frederick?

A I am.

Q Are you familiar with the values of real estate and personal property in this County?

A I feel I am.

Q Did you appraise the property or estate of Lillie R. Myers, together with Mr. Bowlus, who has just testified?

A Yes, I looked at it.

Q Will you give the Court the benefit of your appraisal please?

A 336 North Market Street, which is the Hotel Edgewood building, it is on a lot 22 $\frac{1}{4}$ feet frontage with a depth of 129 feet, and it is a three-story brick building, heated by
